

Designing & Leading Effective Teams

*Thursday, October 3, 2019
Midwest Region Burn Conference
Graduate Hotel, Iowa City, IA*

Presented By:

Greg L. Stewart, Ph.D.

Professor & Mary H. Bell Chair in Leadership Tippie College of Business
Institute for Clinical & Translational
Science
University of Iowa

Disclosures: This presenter has no relevant relationships to disclose.

Overview: This session provides tools and frameworks for creating and developing effective teams. A variety of concepts and skills will be presented through a series of short lectures, hands-on experimental exercises, discussions, and reflective exercises.

Specific topics include (1) understanding the benefits and obstacles associated with teams (2) appropriately balance planning and acting, (3) identifying approaches for effectively staffing teams, (4) applying models of leadership to enable team success, (5) developing plans and apply shared leadership, and (6) developing effective team cognition to utilize unique sources of information within teams.

To register: <https://midwestregionburn.centerforconferences.uiowa.edu/designing-and-leading-effective-teams-workshop>

This session is certified for CME credit as part of the Midwest Region Burn Conference